The Name

In the local Dhivehi language, “Nihaali” was a part of ceremonial clothing worn by the Sultan’s nobles. This name reflects our love for Maldivian heritage.

Kudarikilu Island

A peaceful little island in the heart of the rich marine environment that is Baa Atoll. You would be charmed equally by the soft sandy beaches, the swaying palm leaves as well as the sweet locals. Kudarikilu island is well-known in Maldives for its love for preserving Maldivian heritage, especially traditional music and dance. You can visit the historical site of an old mosque and listen to the stories of how it was built by local craftsmen. The island is also home to a private museum with a rare collection of relics showcasing Maldivian lifestyle and history, some dating back to hundreds of years. The island has one of the best house reefs in Baa Atoll, making it ideal for snorkelling.

Outstanding – The staff at nihaali didn't go for an extra mile but thousand miles ahead to make our mini vacay to celebrate our anniversary congenial.... Special thanks to Ali Musthofa for being at our disposal whenever we need him... there are no words to describe the taste of the food from bonjour café' as we were never expecting such delicious food from a local island. So if anyone wanna experience the living in a local island I'd highly recommend Nihaali guesthouse.
